When I go to change the hue/saturation, I can't. I can't even see the option to change it. So basically the grays are gray, the whites are white, and the black is black. What am I doing wrong here? A: I don't know why you can't see it in the hue/saturation dialog, but if you look in the menu for the layer you will see that the c6a93da74d
